

Recyclers Association Membership Categories

Types of membership

a) Associate Members: shall be persons in the business of recycling with integrity and genuine desire to share in the passion for a cleaner, habitable environment and sustainable development of Nigeria, Africa and the world, and defend the violation of it anywhere. They shall have the right to vote in accordance with the RAN Constitution and its Bye-Laws and be voted for into the office of State Co-Ordinator.

b) Corporate Members: shall be organizations duly registered to operate recycling businesses in Nigeria. Corporate Members shall have the right to vote and be voted for in accordance with the provisions of the RAN Constitution and its Bye-Laws.

c) Professional Members: shall be outstanding persons, students, researchers in various recycling sectors whom the association desires to recommend as members proposed by the Executive Council and ratified by two-third majority votes of members at a General Meeting. They shall have no right to vote, ineligible to contest but are eligible to be included in committees in accordance with the RAN Constitution and its Bye-Laws.

d) Affiliate Members: shall be organizations, or other entities whose objectives align wholly or in part with those of the Association—whether in Nigeria, across Africa, or globally. Admission shall be based on a recommendation by the Executive Council and approval by a simple majority of members present at a General Meeting. Affiliate Members must be nonpolitical, non-religious, non-profit, and independent, not subject to the control of any government. They shall not have voting rights and shall be ineligible to contest for office.

e) Patrons: are prominent institutions that have contributed immensely to the growth of individuals and start-up industries within the recycling space in Nigeria. It is open to corporate organizations in the recycling industry with turn-over of over 500 million NGN, over 100 full time staff and more than 10 years of existence.

f) Honorary Members: shall be outstanding individuals, including RAN Board of Trustees, Immediate Past Presidents, Vice Presidents and General Secretaries. As well as industry champions nominated by the Executive council. and other nominated persons of repute. No annual due is required for this category. Honorary Members shall not have voting rights, shall be ineligible to contest for office, but may serve on committees in accordance with RAN Constitution and its Bye-Laws.